

Perspectives and Limits of Democracy

3rd Workshop on International Constitutional Law

Venue: Vienna University Law School, Juridicum (Top floor),
Schottenbastei 10 – 16, 1010 Vienna

Friday, 11 May 2007:

- 09.00 Reception
- 09.15 European constitutional law and the democratic deficit of the European Union
- Ulrich Haltern
- 10.45 Break
- 11.15 Equally Efficient and Legitimate? Perspectives and Limits of Agencies and Other
New Modes of European Governance– Andreas Orator
- 12.30 Break
- 14.00 Democratic deficit of standard setting bodies – Anne van Aaken
- 15.15 Break
- 16.15 Working groups: "Is democracy a global concept? - democratic efforts in the Middle East"
- 17.30 Break
- 19.00 Evening discussion: "Militant democracy" at the Café Prückel - Victor Ferrer
Comella, Rudolf Thienel

Saturday, 12 May 2007

- 09.15 International Election Observation and Democracy – Christina Binder
- 10.30 Break
- 10.45 Democratization of South East Europe (SEE): Higher Education and Research as Prerequisites of Democratic Societies - Limits and Perspectives for the Academic Freedom in SEE - Hedwig Kopetz
- 11.45 India: the largest democracy in the world - Rostam Neuwirth
- 12.15 Role of Citizen's in Democracy: Rights v Duties - Swarupama Chaturvedi
- 13.30 End of the Workshop